Quilt Show Registrations and Guidelines

Guidelines are available on our CCQ website.

<http://clarkcountyquilters.org/2018QS%20Entry%20Guidelines.pdf>

Registration forms are also available on the web.

Regular entries: <http://clarkcountyquilters.org/2018QS%20Entry%20Form.pdf>

Special Exhibit entries: <http://clarkcountyquilters.org/2018QS%20Special%20Exhibit%20Entry%20Form.pdf>

The registration forms are due no later than February 1, 2018. If you have any questions about the registration process, please contact Wilma or Dianne.

We know the registration is especially early this year. If your quilt is not ready for a prime-time photo, please provide a sketch so we can be sure to get your quilt into the correct category. The size is very important so our layout team can determine where to place your piece.

Behind the Scenes

In case you're wondering why we need the quilt registrations so early, we wanted to let you know what happens to all those forms between the time you turn them in and the quilt show.

- Wilma and Dianne will enter all the entries into a spreadsheet. Check numbers and cash need to be balanced during this process.
- The database is sorted into preliminary categories.
- The judging team (Lynn Czabon and Bev Woodard) and quilt show chairpersons (Wilma, Dianne, Arden and Nancy) meet to review the registration forms. Quilts in the art category are segregated into Art Representational, Art Non-Representational, Art Portrait, Art Landscape, etc. Categories will be sorted by quilt size and by skill level.
- Numbers are assigned to each quilt.
- The database is distributed to:

Bev Woodard who creates the intake and pick-up 3x5 cards, plus the judging forms for each quilt

Karan Brooks and Martha Shehorn, the layout team, who create maps of the rows and which quilts are hung at each specific location.

They will share the layout with Roseanne Hatfield who will create the signage and to Lynn Stiglich to include in the program.

- Lynn Stiglich, the Program Editor, enters the quilts into our program
- Ribbons are ordered by Lynn Czabon
- The registration forms are delivered to Ada Levins so she can create the stories that will be attached to each quilt.

Thank You

We want to thank Val Pellens, Bev Woodard, and Sharry Olmstead for sharing information at our January meeting about the judging process. They stressed that each quilt will receive comments on what was done well. Judges look at design, workmanship, and finishing. It's a wonderful way to get feedback and learn how to improve.

Video with Ricky Tims

We know some of you are hesitant to display your quilts in a quilt show. This video interview with Ricky Tims might convince you to share your creation so others may be inspired by your work.

<https://thequiltshow.com/daily-blog/142-newsletter/26396-first-quilt-and-your-first-show-quilt-ricky-tims-ukrainian>

I learned something this week from one of our guild members (who shall remain anonymous). The first time she entered a quilt, she stood around the corner to hear others make comments about her quilt. Imagine how happy she was to hear guests say, "It's such a happy quilt." Your work can provide that kind of inspiration to our visitors.

Linus Exhibit and Bragging Corner

We're hoping to coordinate with Linus to provide a booth where our members can have their baby and kid quilts displayed. We're still working out the details so will let you know more as soon as we can. These quilts will not be judged, nor will there be an entry fee. This was a recommendation from one of our guild members and we're doing our best to make it happen.

Special Exhibit Spotlight

Why UNESCO World Heritage Traveling Quilt Exhibit?

The United Nations Organization for Education, Science and Culture (UNESCO) was founded on November 16, 1945.

UNESCO wanted to create a "CULTURE OF PEACE." The Charter of the United Nations in 1945 stated, "We the people of the United Nations determined to save succeeding generations from the scourge of war..."

UNESCO's Culture of Peace is a set of values, attitudes, modes of behavior, and ways of life that reject violence and prevent conflicts by solving problems through dialogue and negotiation.

UNESCO's 195 nation participants strive to build education, social responsibility, preservation of culture, and the protection of human rights by acknowledging and supporting organizations, cities, states, and countries who work to uphold a Culture of Peace.

Many organizations throughout the world that are related to quilting have been recognized as UNESCO World Heritage sites, including Paducah, Kentucky, for its overwhelming "whole city" support of quilting.

Quilting creates a culture of peace. Quilting is a peaceful activity that brings all kinds of people together who observe human rights, show mutual respect, and in many cases work to help alleviate poverty in their communities. All of these things are at the heart of UNESCO's mission.

Several UNESCO World Heritage Traveling Quilt Exhibits circle the globe. The exhibit we are honored to have at our quilt show in 2018 involves quilters from the United States, Japan, and Korea who have created representations of several UNESCO World Heritage sites.

The 90 quilts in the exhibit contain three quilts made by our members, Karan Brooks, Kathie Kerler, and Sharry Olmstead.

Please spread the word about this exhibit. For many, this is a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity to see a World Heritage Traveling Quilt Exhibit.

Fort Vancouver Tapestry

You can see the Fort Vancouver Tapestry at their website <http://www.fortvancouvertapestry.com/tapestry.php>. This is a Clark County treasure, and our quilt show attendees will love it. Bring your friends to see this wonderful piece of art.

Fairy Garden

We are excited about our second quilt co-operative: a Fairy Palace. All the rooms for the fairy palace quilt are spoken for, and participants will be meeting at elinor's place to combine skills and fabrics if necessary. elinor is hoping to have additional dolls with a fairy theme. She has a few herself. There will be a streamer of triangular banners needed with gauzy bits and pieces. She plans to add a chain to fairies. If anyone has ideas, please contact elinor at elinor@epbdolls.net or 360-892-6657. Does anyone know how we could make a base for a fountain? Please contact elinor if you have ideas. Join her in play. This should be a fun addition to what promises to be a magical show.

Vendor Listing

We already have over 20 vendors who will be at our show. Their websites are listed on our CCQ Quilt Show page. Please investigate their offerings and support our vendors and sponsors.

Sponsor Showcase – Quilting Delights

We have four wonderful corporate sponsors for our show. We'd like to showcase each one over the next few editions of our Blue Moon Scoop. This month, we are featuring Quilting Delights in Happy Valley, Oregon.

Quilting Delights “The Heart and Art of Quilting”

Welcome to Quilting Delights and we love to quilt! Not only that, our heart's desire is for you to love quilting, too. That's why we're in business. In fact, our mission statement is that Quilting Delights is "The Heart and Art of Quilting."

We have a wonderful quilting and sewing center with plenty of goodies for you to explore. You'll find everything for your sewing needs, including fabrics, patterns, top quality batiks and cottons, quilting and embroidery supplies and project kits, threads, needles, machine parts, and much, much more!

We are an authorized Bernina Dealer and offer lifetime free Bernina Mastery classes with the purchase of a Bernina sewing machine, Bernina embroidery machine, or Bernina serger. We are happy to announce that we are now also an Elna authorized dealer and offer the same support and free mastery classes with the purchase of an Elna sewing machine, Elna embroidery machine or Elna/Necchi Serger.

With our new expanded classroom we offer a variety of quilting classes and sewing clubs for all levels of sewing, quilting, and embroidery enthusiasts; including Beginner Quilting, Long Arm Quilting Machine Certification, Software Samplers, and various individual project classes. Use our machines or bring your own!

If your beloved sewing machine (any brand!!) is on the fritz, we welcome you to visit our on-site full service repair shop, Tuesday - Friday, 9:00am to 5:00, where our fabulous service technician can take care of all your machine tune-up and repair needs. We also have a limited selection of used non-Bernina brand machines for sale.

Please visit our website for quilting class schedules, sewing machine service pricing, long arm quilting service pricing, and to check out what our store has to offer. Please feel free to email us at info@quiltingdelights.com with any questions or comments! Stop in or call and make an appointment to see the machines!

Machines and tables for rental and classroom instruction; including a Handi Quilter long arm quilting machine; bright and cheerful atmosphere for shopping, sewing, and learning; a smiling and helpful staff!

Program Ads

Lynn Stiglich lynn.stiglich@gmail.com

See Blue Moon Scoop 3 for pricing information about ads in our Quilt Show Program. Our program pages will be larger this year, but ad pricing remains the same. It's a bargain if you have a business you want to advertise.

Jelly Roll Race

We already have two teams lined up for our Friday afternoon, April 6, Jelly Roll Race. Registration fee of $10 is donated to Comfort Quilts. See Blue Moon Scoop 3 for complete information about our Jelly Roll Race. Find your teammate and sign up. Contact Jean Seale at islaflamingos@yahoo.com.

First Aid Station

Our First Aid Station will be along the south side of our Hall A. We'd like to ask our CCQ members and volunteers to be aware of its location so you can come to us quickly in case of an emergency. DO NOT MOVE ANY INJURED VISITORS. If you would like to help staff this desk, please contact our Volunteer Coordinators, Lyn or Rosemary at Lyn_Nelson@hotmail.com or agriggs7@comcast.net.

Gift Baskets

Do you have a few quilt related items that are duplicates or notions that you just will never use that you are willing to donate to our guild show baskets? We will have the basket drawings at the end of each show day. We also create a basket or two for a drawing for our quilt show volunteers.

Please contact Debby Potter at twopotters@juno.com or Mary Newhouse at maryfnewhouse@yahoo.com about your much-appreciated donations, or drop them off at the Quilt Show Committee table during social hour.

Social Media Guru

Thank you to Tish Curry for listing information about our show on Facebook, Twitter, Pinterest, Instagram, Google Plus, WordPress, and LinkedIn.

Classes

Spaces are still available for the "Portrait Quilt Techniques" class on Thursday and Friday, April 5-6, being taught by Lynn Czaban. Spaces also available for Saturday's "3-D Whimsical Cottages" taught by Debby Potter. See the website for full information and registration forms.

Contact Val Pellens pellensbcbn@gmail.com for additional information.

Fabric Depot Make and Take Classes

Fabric Depot is one of the sponsors for our quilt show. They will be offering two "Make and Take" classes during our show on Saturday, one in the morning from 9-12 and one in the afternoon from 1-4.

The Couched Pouch

Description: Join Fabric Depot Instructor and Sewist Paula Chipman and learn how to make a decorative and useful zipper pouch that features Specialty Thread Embellishments. Beautiful and Functional.

Cost: $40.00

We will include a photo of the bag on our website as soon as it is available.

Contact Val Pellens pellensbcbn@gmail.com for additional information.

Fabric Depot President's Day Warehouse Sale Coupon

Fabric Depot has provided our membership with early bird passes to their President's Day Weekend Warehouse Sale. You must bring the pass with you. This sale is going to be amazing and the Guild gets in early. Early Bird shopping is Saturday, February 17th at 8:00 am. Also, when you spend $75.00 at the Warehouse Sale, you will receive a coupon for the Retail Store for 40% off your entire purchase!

Please see the attachment on the Constant Contact email for coupon!

Quilt Show Team Meeting

We held our first All Team meeting on Thursday night, January 11. Your Fab4 team (Wilma, Dianne, Nancy and Arden) are so grateful for the efforts you put forth to make our show a great one. Thank you to all.

We will plan to meet again at 5:00 PM before our February 1 Guild Auction.
