Quilt Show Registrations

The Entry Forms are in and we've seen the photos (or drawings). Once again, your quilts will be the stars of our show. We have over 300 entries.

Your quilts can be delivered to the Clark County Event Center on Tuesday, April 3, 2018 between 9 and 11 AM. No parking fees that day. Make sure your quilt includes a label with your name and contact information plus a sewn-in 4" sleeve.

Jelly Roll Race

Be sure to sign up with Jean Seale. In addition to our Friday race at 1:00, we will have a second sprint on Saturday at 11 AM. Quilting Delights, one of our sponsors, will be signing up teams too. Find a friend and get yourself registered for this great race! Quilting Delights is also providing Bernina sewing machines if you don't want to bring your own. In addition to the quilting service offered by Comfort Quilts, we are gathering more prizes including gift certificates from Quilting Delights.

Artist Walk

Lynn Czaban, our Featured Quilter, has offered to lead an Artist Walk on Saturday at 1:00. Learn the stories behind each of Lynn's quilts. No reservation required. Meet her at her exhibit at 1:00.

Sponsor Showcase – Craft Warehouse

Craft Warehouse is a family-run Pacific Northwest company with locations throughout Oregon, Washington and Idaho. It's a place where you can be inspired, learn something new, and discover your creativity.

Craft Warehouse is your one-stop shop when it comes to home decor and creative projects. From fabric to floral to framing to paper crafts and beading, they carry just about everything.

Channel your inner creativity with Craft Warehouse. Learn the latest techniques and trends when it comes to fun and unique projects. You'll find out there's no wrong or right way to create, just put your own spin on it!

CCQ Sponsorships

We want to thank our CCQ members who have stepped forward to support special exhibits and join our President's Club. Your sponsorship is greatly appreciated.

Thank You

QuiltSpace Social Media app

The QuiltSpace app is up and running and we are really excited for you to download the app, scroll to Clark County Quilters Show, and press the "I'm Attending!" button.

How do you download QuiltSpace? Search for QuiltSpace in:

Apple's App Store, or Android's Google Play

Once downloaded, use your email to sign up (it's FREE), scroll until you see our box and click on it.

During the show, you will be able to use the app for a:

- Gallery of quilt photos
- Live feed – add in your own photos
- Schedule of events
- List of vendors
- Create your own schedule
- Find out who else is using the app

We don't have all the details yet, but you can expect some contests using this app. After the show, you can continue to share photos and chats.

Please support QuiltSpace by downloading the app. Tell your faraway friends to join you vicariously.

Bring “Once in a Blue Moon” home with you!

CCQ will be photographing the quilts entered in our 2018 show, “Once in a Blue Moon,” and making copies of the photos available for purchase. This year the photos will be on a thumb drive. The cost will remain $10.00. Orders and prepayment will be taken at the March Guild meeting (at the Library table) and during the quilt show (at the Membership and Pins and Promotions desk). Stop by and purchase your copy! If you pre-order, your copy should be ready for pickup during the social hour at the April 12 Quilt Show Awards Program.

Admission Sales Prior to the Show

If you would like tickets prior to the show, text Wilma Scott at 360-798-8049. Or email her at wcs8@comcast.net.

BE SURE TO INCLUDE YOUR ADDRESS with the number and type (adult $7 or 3-day Pass $10) of ticket(s) you want. She will mail them that day. You can also call her and arrange to pick them up.

Contest!!! Name our Quilt Show

Hopefully you put your entry in the can at the March meeting and we are now sorting and sorting and sorting. We will choose the five entries that came up most often and you will vote as a membership at the April Awards Ceremony.

First Aid

This year the Quilt Show team will have a First Aid booth located near the main entrance.

There will be daily First Aid tips. A small kit will be available for small injuries. We also hope to obtain a wheelchair for use at the show.

Questions, suggestions or information, please contact Jean Seale at islaflamingos@yahoo.com.

Volunteer!

We will need volunteers right up until the day the show begins! Please contact Lyn Nelson lyn_nelson@hotmail.com or Rosemary Griggs agriggs7@comcast.net.

Vendors

Nancy and Arden have secured 32 vendors. Two vendors will be tables only. Please review the list on our website and on QuiltSpace.

Classes

Contact Val Pellens pellensbcbn@gmail.com to sign up for classes. See the website for a list and descriptions. Bernina machines will be provided by Quilting Delights for the Make & Take classes on Saturday.

Website Update

The Quilt Show Website is available on our website.

Quilts for Ambience

Thank you to the members who have stepped forward to share their beautiful (but well worn?) quilts for us to hang on those cold Event Center walls! Call Wilma or Dianne if you have a quilt you would like to share. No fee, no judging, no categories!
