

Small Quilting Groups

Small groups are a great way to enrich your CCQ membership and meet new friends. If you are interested in one of the small groups that is open, please call the group contact for specific information about the time and place. The notes below were our best information at the time the information was last verified, but changes can occur throughout the year.

Because many small groups meet in the homes of their members, they may be "full" because of space limitations. For help with joining a small group, please contact the New Member Services Chair.
