See the members-only tab of our website, www.clarkcountyquilters.org, for more details about each activity. Though many activities are ongoing throughout the year, your participation does not necessarily have to be continuous. Contact the committee chair if you have specific questions. Activities below operate from September through June unless otherwise specified.

Check all areas that interest you. We need your participation!

Volunteering is a great way to meet others.

- Comfort Quilts: Volunteers assemble kits for guild members to make tops for quilts to be distributed to local community entities. Prepare tops for quilting, binding and distribution. For more info, visit the CCQ website.
- Member Registration: Greet members and guests at general meetings and assist with sign-ins and guild membership.
- New Member Services: Assistant who is a "people-person" to partner hosting new member teas, plus assist or substitute for Chair at general meetings.
- Opportunity Quilt: Help with selling raffle tickets, transporting and arranging the quilt display at venues, help find venues to sell tickets.
- Outreach: Help teach essential quilting skills in a supportive manner to the non-quilting community.
- Historian: Take pictures at guild events.
- Saturday Workshops: Many opportunities. Work ½ shift at general meetings involving set up, selling spots, clean up. Day before event, help with set up. Day of event, help participants bring in supplies and direct them to their classroom. Help with cleanup.
- Stash Bazaar: Set up and take down tables before and after bazaar. Relieve vendors for breaks during bazaar.
- Featured Artist Show: Many opportunities. Set up and take down quilt stands for the show. Bring food or help with the Friday night reception. Stay overnight with the quilts on Friday or Saturday. Act as white-glove guide at the show. Sell admission tickets.
- Challenge: Help hang quilts for the Challenge display.
- Quilt Show: Many opportunities. Watch for more information in the spring.
- Publicity: Need trainee to start as Assistant in June. Useful skills include advertising, design, layout, computer skills, organization, time management, sense of deadlines and flexibility when working with committee chairs.
- Spring and Fall Retreats: Be on the committee to help sew door prize items and help with setup before retreat.
- Newsletter: Visit local quilt shops to see if they want to advertise in the newsletter.
- Three for One: Sell tickets at monthly meetings
- Library: Help maintain CCQ Library inventory and online catalog. Help with book checkout and returns during meetings. Help decide on acquisition of new library materials and disposition of underused items.
- Auction: Many opportunities. Solicit donated items for live and silent auctions. Print signs and bid sheets. Help with raffle, live and silent auction activities, serving refreshments, check out, set up and clean up.
